3

Insert one end of the frame into the POLE POCKET of the fabric, and work the tube frame into the fabric cover (A). When the tube comes out the other side of the pole pocket, fasten the final joint of the frame together (B).

4

Your full moon frame should have 3 evenly space rigging points. Before closing your zipper, align at least 2 of these rigging points with the ends of the zipper enclosure. There will be openings in the fabric at these locations to allowing rigging hardware to pass through.
